

KEEP NOBLESVILLE BEAUTIFUL

The Times photo by Steven Furlow

Scott and Beata Strubel carry away debris to be disposed of Saturday during the keep Noblesville Beautiful Spring Neighborhood Blitz.

Neighborhood effort makes difference

BY STEVEN FURLOW

sfurlow@thetimes24-7.com

Dozens of volunteers turned out Saturday for Keep Noblesville Beautiful's annual Spring Clean Up Blitz helping residents in the neighborhood bounded by Roosevelt, 12th, Hamilton, and 15th streets clear debris, paint and other upkeep projects. Even the smallest tasks made a big difference to those home owners who took advantage of KNB and their work to beautify the city one house at a time. Many residents already had a lot to be proud of and following the work had even more to show off.

"People love helping out," said Lori Schwartz with KNB and one of those going from house to house helping.

"This is important." Nob. Times 5-26-11

The Times photo by Steven Furlow

Lori Schwartz, left and Karen Fitzpatrick rake out old mulch from a flower bed.

The work, including donated materials, could not be done without community support and members of Keep Noblesville Beautiful expressed their appreciation for all those who took time to help whether with physical labor, psychological support or monetary donations and memberships.

>> See Effort, Page A3

The goal is to make Noblesville, already a stand-out city, one of the most beautiful around as well.

Some of those who helped came from groups including Boy Scout Troup 183, Girl Scout Daisies Troup 1656 and Cub Scout Den 211, Christ Community Christian Church, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Noblesville High School, North Side Crime Watch and Walgreens along with support from the Noblesville Street Department, Noblesville City Hall, Hamilton County Master Gardeners and IDNR Tree Stewards.

More information on KNB including upcoming events, volunteer opportunities and how to join at www.keepnoblesvillebeautiful.org.

some of those who

around as well of the most beautiful a stand-out city, one

Noblesville, already the goal is to make and memberships

City Hall Hamilton

Department Noblesville

Noblesville Street Department support from the and Walgreens along North Side Crime Watch Noblesville High School